

LOVARC Cultural Competency and Diversity Plan

Mission Statement

The primary mission of LOVARC is to promote the general welfare of persons with disabilities. Specifically, we endeavor to provide services which enable recipients to lead a fuller life of dignity and independence and to achieve a level of productivity limited only by individual inherent capabilities.

LOVARC Cultural Competency and Diversity Values

LOVARC strives to “cast a wide net” in our attempts to serve our community. Consequently, for applicants and persons receiving services, personnel, and other stakeholders, LOVARC interactions are conducted with sensitivity, professional respect and legal compliance concerning age, culture, gender, sexual orientation, spiritual beliefs, socioeconomic status and language/mode of communication.

Activities

Human Resources Affirmative Action Yearly Analysis:

- Compares demographics of LOVARC personnel to local labor force with respect to disabilities, gender, race/ethnicity, and Veteran status
- Quantifies recruitment, transfers and promotions by disabilities, gender, race/ethnicity, and Veteran status.
- Sets performance goals pursuant to analysis of data regarding recruitment, transfers and promotions by disabilities, gender, race/ethnicity, and Veteran status.
